Hi David & other members,

Welcome to the group!

As you know, I created it because of the behaviour of the owner of the other RHUK group. I see no reason to censor discussions here, nor to declare anything out of bounds (though I will delete and ban spammers, of course). If group decisions need to be made, anyone can always create a poll.

Many groups don't like discussion of infant circumcision here, because it's controversial. I think that's a mistake. As far as I'm concerned, I'm happy for it to be discussed and even debated here.

My own position on infant circ is moderate, or at least I think so, anyway. I dislike advocacy. I'm in favour of infoming the public, parents especially, about circumcision, and enabling them to make decisions. I respect and support their choice on the subject of circumcision, whatever it may be. I would personally choose to circumcise a son (and hopefully I will one day adopt), but am not about to tell others what to do.

Jake
