

BERIT MILA PROGRAM OF REFORM JUDAISM NATIONAL ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN MOHALIM

HomeAbout the ProgramResources on Berit MilaFind a Mohel/etBecome a Mohel/etContact The Program

Articles and Websites

Due to the nature of the subject matter, some pages on the websites listed below contain explicit images and some graphic descriptions which are for informational purposes only. The Berit Mila Program is not affiliated with, nor does it specifically endorse any of the claims made in the websites listed below.

www.medicirc.org

On the medical benefits of circumcision. By Dr. Edgar Schoen, former chair of the American Academy of Pediatrics Task Force on Circumcision

<http://www.circinfo.com/index.html>

A very useful site, designed to help guide parents in making a decision about circumcision. Includes abstracts of medical journal articles as well as a page responding directly to arguments made by opponents of circumcision. Although it is somewhat polemical in places, it is a useful site.

<http://www.circinfo.net>

A useful and comprehensive site which discusses medical, health and sexual aspects of circumcision.

The New Enemies of Circumcision

Article by Jon D. Levenson in Commentary Magazine, March 2000. Follow this link to purchase a copy.

<http://www.circlist.com/cirhome.html>

This comprehensive site does a good job in living up to its goal of serving as an objective, non-partisan resource on all matters relating to circumcision.

www.circumcisioninfo.com

A useful and thorough site filled with information about the circumcision procedure, medical benefits of circumcision, and links to other websites and medical literature.

The Benefits of Circumcision by Professor Brian Morris

A comprehensive paper by Brian Morris, an Australian professor of Medical Sciences in which he argues for the medical benefits of circumcision.

The berit Mila Program is a joint project of the institutions of Reform Judaism

